

2020
ALEXANDER VALLEY
CABERNET SAUVIGNON

91 POINTS

"Made with grapes grown in Sonoma's Alexander Valley, this richly concentrated and complex red wine is a blend of mostly cabernet sauvignon with a small addition of malbec. There's a satisfying core of mixed berry flavours with earthy and herbal accents and a smooth and rounded texture. Drink now-2026."

- Christopher Waters,
The Globe and Mail

Learn more about our Canadian owned Plume wines at bacas.ca/plume

2020

ALEXANDER VALLEY
CABERNET SAUVIGNON

91 POINTS

"Plume is a Californian wine brand operated by the Stewart family, which owns Quails' Gate Winery in the Okanagan Valley and Lake Sonoma and Valley of the Moon wineries in Sonoma County. Made with grapes grown in Sonoma's Alexander Valley, this richly concentrated and complex red wine is a blend of mostly cabernet sauvignon with a small addition of malbec. There's a satisfying core of mixed berry flavours with earthy and herbal accents and a smooth and rounded texture. Drink now-2026."

- Christopher Waters, The Globe and Mail

2020

ALEXANDER VALLEY
CABERNET SAUVIGNON

91 POINTS

“Made with grapes grown in Sonoma’s Alexander Valley, this richly concentrated and complex red wine is a blend of mostly cabernet sauvignon with a small addition of malbec. There’s a satisfying core of mixed berry flavours with earthy and herbal accents and a smooth and rounded texture. Drink now-2026.”

- Christopher Waters,
The Globe and Mail